4. The tenders will be opened by the Commissioner, or in his absence, by one of the Assistant Commissioners at Mercara, at noon on Friday the 9th March, 1906, in the presence of those applicants who may be present. The final disposal of the tenders will, however, rest with the Chief Commissioner of Coorg who reserves to himself full power to reject any or all of the tenders without assigning any reason. The deposits made by the applicants whose tenders are rejected will be returned to them.

5. The applicant whose tender may be accepted by the Chief Commissioner shall be required to deposit within three days a further sum in cash, or currency notes, or Government Promissory notes to make up together with the deposits previously made, a sum equal to half of the annual payment or rent guaranteed, such deposits being eventually credited towards the instalments due for the half-year, ending with 31st March, 1909, and further he shall, within ten days of the acceptance of his tender by the Chief Commissioner, execute an agreement in the prescribed form on stamp paper binding himself to conform to the rules prescribed under the Opium Act, I of 1878, and shall give security for the due fulfilment of the engagement entered into by him, and if he fails to do so, the deposits already made shall be forfeited to Government and the contract shall be otherwise disposed of.

6. In the event of the contractor failing to pay up any instalment on the date on which it falls due, the Commissioner of Coorg shall be at liberty at once to cancel the contract, and to confiscate the deposit, the lease being re-sold at the contractor's risk.

10. All opium required for vend must be procured through the Commissioner of Coorg on payment of the price fixed by the Chief Commissioner and on the expiry of the contract the incoming contractor shall be bound to take over, if so required by the Commissioner, any opium, preparations or admixtures of opium and intoxicating drugs prepared from the poppy other than preparations or admixtures of opium used for smoking that may remain unexpended belonging to the former contractor to the extent of two months' supply at such price and in such quantities as the Commissioner shall adjudge.
